See PCL3 Digital® labels perform at IPEX!

Label Connections' products on display at IPEX

Following the receipt of HP Indigo and Kodak NexPress seals of approval for the PCL3 Digital® label range you can see them, along with other products from Label Connections' PCL™ labelling range, on various major stands at IPEX.

- Polyester 'cling' labels from the PCL3 Digital® range can be seen in action on the NexPress at the Kodak stand in Hall 5: Stand D70.
- For those with musical leanings PCL3 Digital® CD labels will be running on the HP Indigo press at the HP stand in Hall 4: Stand A01.
- Connoisseurs of fine wines will appreciate the PCL3 Digital® Wine Labels being printed at the Danwood stand in Hall 6: Stand B60.
- Océ (UK) Ltd in Hall 1: Stand G50, are also working closely with Label Connections to develop labelling solutions for their press users, and will be showing some examples of the quality achieved using the PCL™ labels in combination with Océ print technology.

PCL3 Digital® labels follow the proven PCL™ label formats. All PCL Digital® and PCL™ label formats can be downloaded as PDF files from the Label Connections website at www.pcllabels.com

Label Connections, the Cambridgeshire based digital label manufacturer, has been producing high quality self adhesive labels for the printing industry for over twelve years. Lesley Turner, Label Connections' managing director, says "IPEX gives us a fantastic opportunity to showcase our products with major press manufacturers."

The PCL3 Digital® label range is stocked in the United Kingdom by Robert Horne Paper, Antalis and Howard Smith Paper. Label Connections is also in negotiations with potential distributors in North America and Europe.
