

How to:

Remove self adhesive labels from the backing sheet

When removing self adhesive labels from the backing sheet it is important to peel the backing paper from the label to ensure a curl is not introduced. This is particularly important when removing CD and DVD labels.

1. Bend the backing paper away from the label until the edge of the label lifts.

2 & 3. Gently remove the label by pulling the backing paper away.

